

Scholarship Application

Prosper United Methodist Church seeks to provide youth and their families opportunities and experiences for fellowship, faith formation, and spiritual growth. We never want money to be a barrier for your student to participate in our youth ministry so, in order to help families with expenses, scholarship assistance is available. Please complete the following information and return it back to Joel via email or drop it at the front office in the envelope provided. You can expect a response to your application within a week.
